Selection Confirmation — One World Summit Italy 2025

Dear Visionary Leader,

We are absolutely delighted to inform you that you have been officially selected as a Self-Funded Delegate for the prestigious One World Summit to be held in Milan, Italy, from 28th to 31st July 2025.

Your unwavering commitment to leadership, youth empowerment, and global progress has truly inspired our selection committee. This recognition is not only a celebration of your journey but a powerful affirmation of your potential to influence positive change in the world.

As a self-funded delegate, you will stand as a representative of your country on the global stage engaging in high-level discussions, sharing your voice as an international speaker, and collaborating with fellow changemakers from across continents. This is more than just a summit; it is a platform to co-create meaningful impact and lead initiatives that shape a more inclusive and sustainable future for all.

To confirm your participation and access full details of your engagement, kindly submit your confirmation through the link below:
